Guilford County Celebrates
Volunteers with a Terrific Picnic!

AAC-Guilford County Celebrates
Juneteeth 2024

“I give you my word as a Biden: I would not be running again if I did not believe with all my heart and soul, I can do this job”

*YES YOU CAN! YES YOU CAN!
YES YOU CAN!*

VOLUNTEER
APPRECIATION PICNIC!

Guilford County honored our dedicated volunteers with a fantastic picnic on May 18! Generously provided by the candidates, the food was a hit, and volunteers enjoyed the unique opportunity to engage with them one-on-one.

Mo Green's Fundraiser in Carteret/Onslow County

On May 23rd, Carteret/Onslow County hosted an impressive fundraising event for Mo Green, the most qualified candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction. Local candidates, including Chris Schulte, Frances Lakey, Tanyetta, Katie Tomberlin, Carmen Spicer, Andi Morrow, and Bishop Charles Dudley, attended.

How to help Mo win in November!

1. Spread the word about Mo and his radical, inexperienced opponent, Michelle Morrow.
2. Talk to your friends and educators, whether they are Democrat, Republican, or Unaffiliated, about Mo.
3. Go out, register, vote, and please donate to Mo's campaign.

Meet MO GREEN

Mo Green's message last night, "Restore the Soul of Public Education," resonated deeply with all of us. He was an exceptional speaker, and his qualifications to run for Superintendent of Public Instruction are unmatched. He has the experience and passion necessary for this role. Previously, he was the superintendent of Guilford County Schools, North Carolina's third-largest district, where he led significant educational improvements. His career in education began at Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools, where he served as general counsel, COO, and deputy superintendent.

Brunswick County Democratic Party Shines at Bandfest

CANDIDATES ENGAGE WITH VOTERS, WELCOME NEW MEMBERS

Our Brunswick County Democratic Party booth was hopping at Bandfest on June 2nd! Thank you to Paws-Ability (one of our Community Heroes) for hosting such a great festival featuring live music, local vendors, and pets up for adoption. Four of our candidates were on hand to talk to voters: Janis Simmons for School Board, Bob Fulton & Tom Simmons for County Commission, and Charles Jones for NC House District 17. Thank you to our wonderful volunteers for staffing our busy booth all day. We even talked with some disaffected Republicans, one of whom changed his voter registration to Democratic while he was at the fest!

Blue Wave Democrats Host Successful Meet-and-Greet in Cape Carteret

The Carteret/Onslow Blue Wave Democrats invited the local candidates running for office for a meet-and-greet in Cape Carteret, NC! What a great and successful event attended by many Democrats in the area. The candidates gave powerful messages about ensuring we win the November election and sending them to Raleigh to make a difference at the General Assembly. We have a chance to break the majority if we elect more members of the North Carolina Senate and House of Representatives to Raleigh.

A special thanks to Maria Cervania, Representative out of District 41, who drove 2 1/2 hours to be with us and deliver a powerful speech about helping local candidates win this very important election. Maria has taken the initiative to text 30,000 Democrats about our local candidates. Thanks again, Maria, for doing this and mentoring some North Carolina House candidates.

AAC-Guilford County Celebrates Juneteeth 2024

The African American Caucus Guilford County proudly hosted a Juneteenth Celebration Brunch at Dem headquarters last Wednesday. AAC President Byron Gladden introduced host Busta Brown, well-known radio personality and entrepreneur. The guest speaker was Tanneshia Dukes, Dem candidate for NC House District 59. Tanneshia gave an outstanding speech to a well-attended crowd. Also present was Dr. Steve Luking, Dem candidate NC Senate District 26, Charles Hubbard, Dem candidate for US House District 5, Andy Craighill-Middleton, Dem candidate for US House District 6, David Coates, Dem candidate for the School Board District 3. All of the candidates gave us a few precocious words, encouraging a unified Party. President Gladden ended the program with a Juneteenth history lesson. To paraphrase Gladden, "every presidential election we're told it's a critical election, the building is on fire. This time, it is NOT a drill."

Mitchell County Democrats Host Engaging Events with Candidates and Community Fundraisers

The Mitchell County Democrats had a bustling week, starting with a booth at the Rhododendron Festival in Bakersville on June 21-22, 2024, where they distributed copies of the U.S. Constitution. On June 29, 2024, they hosted the Hot Club of Mitchell County fundraiser featuring congressional candidate Caleb Rudow, NC Senate candidate Frank P. Hughes III, NC House candidate John T. Ford, and county commissioner candidates Jan Hamilton and Ron McKinney. The event also included a silent auction of local artwork and homemade cakes.
