

North Carolina Democratic Party Job Opening:

“Project 100” Regional Organizing Director

The North Carolina Democratic Party (NCDP) is hiring Regional Organizing Directors (RODs) for a voter contact program. This program will focus on electing Democrats up and down the ballot. To confirm, this will be a full-time, salaried, exempt position through November 30th, 2024. Primary responsibility is to grow an already powerful network of volunteers and Democratic activists across the state. Responsible for training and empowering this network of grassroots volunteers and hitting goals for voter contact metrics in their region. Will facilitate the building of activities that generate excitement, knowledge, presence, and votes in their communities. The RODs will report to the Executive Director and other internal departments. Travel will be required when safe; possession of reliable transportation is required. RODs must be committed to the NCDP’s values and platform.

Responsibilities will include:

- Managing and training volunteers on direct voter contact methods such as phone banking and canvassing.
- Ensuring all volunteer outreach and engagement is tracked in VAN and reports are submitted daily.
- Assisting in the planning and execution of organizing actions and events. • Developing relationships with Democratic activists in the community and engaging them in field events and activities.
- Fostering partnerships with local county parties and progressive groups. • Other duties as assigned.

Desired Skills & Qualifications:

- Must possess strong written and oral communication skills
- Previous campaign field management experience preferred.
- Proven ability to meet voter contact and recruitment goals.
- Ability to prioritize and effectively manage multiple tasks in a fast-paced work environment
