

2024 North Carolina Coordinated Campaign Fellow

Start Date: ASAP

Location: North Carolina

Travel Required: No

Description

The North Carolina Coordinated Campaign is recruiting Communications Fellows to ensure that Vice President Harris and Democrats up and down the ballot secure victory in November. This person will be a critical member of the North Carolina state communications department who will draft written materials, compile daily news clips, and monitor media, and other duties as assigned.

They will have the opportunity to train with state and national headquarters, cultivate mentor relationships and networking, and gain valuable experience. Experience is not required, including specific campaign experience. Fellowships run through the end of the election, for up to 30 hours per week. Fellows report directly to the Deputy Communications Director. This position is not eligible for the CWG Bargaining Unit.

Responsibilities

- Assist with drafting daily news clips;
- Support media monitoring efforts;
- Assist with drafting press materials, newsletters and other rapid-response releases;
- Other duties as assigned.

You'd be a good fit for this role if...

- You have superior organizational, writing, editing, and proofing skills;
- You have a strong attention to accuracy and detail
- You are flexible and hardworking;
- You thrive in a fast-paced, constantly evolving political climate, managing multiple, competing priorities.

Salary and Benefits

Fellows will work either 10, 20, or 30 hours per week and receive $1500, $2900, or $4,400 total, respectively, for their work over the fellowship term. Stipends will be paid in two increments, one at the midway point and the second at the end of the fellowship.
